

BRIGGS' MENTHOLATED-HOARHOUND COUGH DROPS

COUGH

Briggs' MENTHOLATED HOARHOUND COUGH DROPS

BREAK UP ANY COUGH OR SOOTHES AN IRRITATED THROAT AND DOES IT QUICKLY

Be sure you get Briggs

ALWAYS KEEP A BOX HANDY

THEY STOP THE TICKLE

C. A. BRIGGS CO. Cambridge Mass.

Y. M. C. A. Heroes To Speak in Newport

Every man in Newport has been invited to come to the Library Building Wednesday evening, October 29 and listen to addresses from several prominent men in the World program of the Y. M. C. A. The speakers will start talking at eight o'clock. A large audience is expected.

Ernest L. Rand, who was awarded the Russian Cross of St. George for coolness and courage under fire in the fighting in the Penaga sector of Russia, and Byron N. Clark, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Vermont, who saw service on the front lines of the battlefield in France as well as at the rear areas of France, will address the gathering. Both are men of wide experience and excellent speakers and it will be well worth the while of any man in Newport to be present.

Discussion of the International convention of the Y. M. C. A. which will take place in Detroit soon will be held.

NEWPORT Local News

The regular meeting of the Malta Commandery of the Memphremagog Lodge of Masons was held Friday evening, October 24. A large body of masons were present. Only regular business was discussed and acted upon.

Miss Mabel Gray of Stanstead College spent the week end at the home of Mrs. David Harriman at 22 Prospect street.

Mrs. Wheeler is taking care of Mrs. A. W. Livingston, who was operated on recently at Sherbrooke hospital. Mrs. Livingston is convalescing rapidly and was able to sit up for a while on Saturday.

Pupils absent from the graded and high schools must bring excuses from their parents or they will not be admitted to their classes.

High school basketball practice started today. A large number of boys were out getting warmed up and making strenuous endeavors to make the team. Newport should have a fine team this year judging from the way some of the boys went through the first afternoon practice.

Everyone should watch for "stunt" night at the Newport high school. It looks as though some very mysterious was in the air and we can expect the mystery to be disclosed in the near future.

The members of the Girls' basketball team this year will wear regular uniforms both in play and practice. They are doing some fine work in their practice and should have a fine team soon.

Clifford McLean is back from 12 months overseas service with a motor repair company. He looks hale and hearty and is busy meeting his friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Nickerson and son, Allen, of North Attleboro, Mass., spent the day Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clement. They have been spending two weeks with Mrs. Henry Schoolcraft in Derby.

Martin E. Vilas, a prominent lawyer of Burlington will deliver an address on the League of Nations at School House hall Tuesday evening, according to word received by Mayor James T. Gardner from Vilas. Saturday. Vilas asked the mayor to have announcements of the meeting to be made in the pulpits of the various churches Sunday and slide put on at the Premier Theatre. A large crowd is expected to hear Mr. Vilas.

Following is a list of foreign letters remaining unclaimed for at the Newport postoffice for the week ending October 22: Hector Covenau, Basil Burkee, Mrs. Ethel Wells and Mrs. Vanslette.

SPEAKING OF SHOVELS

Charlie Peck will sell you a Snow Shovel worth a hundred cents for just 75 cents.

SO WILL WE

but we just say in passing that not only are they good Snow Shovels, but one of the best Stable Shovels a man can buy. Every farmer should have one for the stable and one too for snow, $1.50 buys the two. Moreover we want you to see the Shovel we'll sell you at $1.25.

Regular $1.50 steel, well finished, full polished, well handled Shovel at ONLY $1.25 Each

We are also selling a few other items at prices that ought to be appreciated.

A 9 in. all steel Auto Wrench, 60c value, 29c.

A $1.75 Rexford Hand Hammer and 50c hand made handle, all for $1.75.

A $1.35 Rayo Lantern for 98c. Until the last of the month at these prices.

REMEMBER: Just in 25,000 feet Iron Pipe 1-8 in. to 4 in. Get our prices.

Corrugated Galvanized Roofing, priced at last $1.00 under the market. Biggest Furnace business in years. See our pipe.

FOR SALE—One light Ford Truck. A snap for some one.

TRUE & BLANCHARD NEWPORT

P.S.—You should see the new things in our People's Basement Department.

NEWPORT Local News

Vernon E. Savage, has returned from 18 months' service in the U. S. navy. Savage was formerly on the Mississippi but was transferred to the Zeppelin, a transport and made three trips across.

While on the other side, Savage had an opportunity to make a tour of the battlefield along with some other "gobs" and he visited Chateau Thierry, Champagne, Belleau Woods, grounds.

H. P. Coffin of Plainfield, N. J., who has been at his summer home for a few days, returns to New Jersey Monday. Mr. Coffin has just had built a double porch, the upper one for a sleeping porch with glass enclosure for spring and fall, and is also having a considerable amount of grading done, filling in the swamp near the buildings. When completed Mr. Coffin will have one of the nicest summer homes in this vicinity.

George F. Bosley of the U. S. Immigration force has bought of A. Metivier, his home and lot on Pleasant Ave. Mr. Metivier left Saturday night for Springfield, Mass., where he will make his future home.

Mrs. Leslie Skinner of Island Pond was in town Sunday and Mr. Vincent Jones returned to Island Pond with her, and will remain for the week.

W. J. Harrison is on a business trip to Sherbrooke.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald D. Leavitt were visitors at Mr. Leavitt's mother, in St. Johnsbury recently.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dougherty were in Glover Friday to attend the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Clark.

Miss Winsome Jones went to Montreal Monday morning and will stay during Montreal's celebration of the visit of the Prince of Wales.

Irving Adams, who is a traveling salesman for a wholesale tobacco company, returned Saturday morning from a business trip through Texas and the Mexican border.

Vernon Hill is taking two weeks vacation from Blair's Pharmacy, and visiting friends in Massachusetts.

Miss J. B. Schayltz, the popular clerk at Lee's store is rooming and boarding at M. J. Robinson's.

Rev. and Mrs. A. V. Allen, pastor of the Main street Baptist church and the Baptist church at Beebe, Que., gave a reception to about 40 of the Beebe congregation on Friday evening. There was good music and good things to eat, and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

On Wednesday, Oct. 29, the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church will hold their annual harvest dinner and hash supper in the vestry. Price adults 40 cents, children 25 cents. At the same time there will be held a sale of aprons, fancy work, food, second hand clothing and mystery boxes. At 8:00 p. m., there will be a unique entertainment by the Cradle Roll of the Ladies' Aid. Admission, adults 15 cents, children 10 cents.

The members of the First Baptist church Sunday school will greatly miss their superintendent who has gone to Boston for a few weeks to receive medical treatment.

W. S. Merrill and family will leave this city soon for Seattle, Wash., where they will make their future home. Both Eleanor and Howard Merrill, pupils in the local school have left their classes preparatory to leaving the city.

Miss Fawn Barney of St. Johnsbury who recently took a stenograph position with P. C. Blanchard Real Estate Company, went home from her work ill Monday. Fawn, together with Miss Peggy Burns, prepared some rarebit Sunday. It is presumed that Fawn ate more than her share.

Victor Carter and Helen Grogan were married Saturday night in the parsonage of the Main Street Baptist church. Rev. Arthur V. Allen officiated. The ceremony was a very quiet affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gallup of Brownington Center motored to Newport Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rollins.

The parcel post in the local postoffice is getting extremely heavy due to the strike of teamsters in New York City. The express matter coming to Newport is also piling up.

Many people from Newport are placing orders in Boston for army food. The prices offered by the army authorities are attractive.

Patrons mailing parcel post from the Newport postoffice are requested not to use the same wrapper twice. This is prohibited by the government. The addresses name should be placed in the upper left hand corner of the package and the sender's name in the lower right hand corner. In all possible cases pen should be used instead of pencil and the latter is likely to be rubbed off. Postmaster Stetson urgently requests Newport people to follow these rules.

Rev. L. A. Edwards of the First Congregational church returned Saturday from a trip to Rutland.

Albert Vanier is home from overseas service. He is the son of Frank Vanier of Park street.

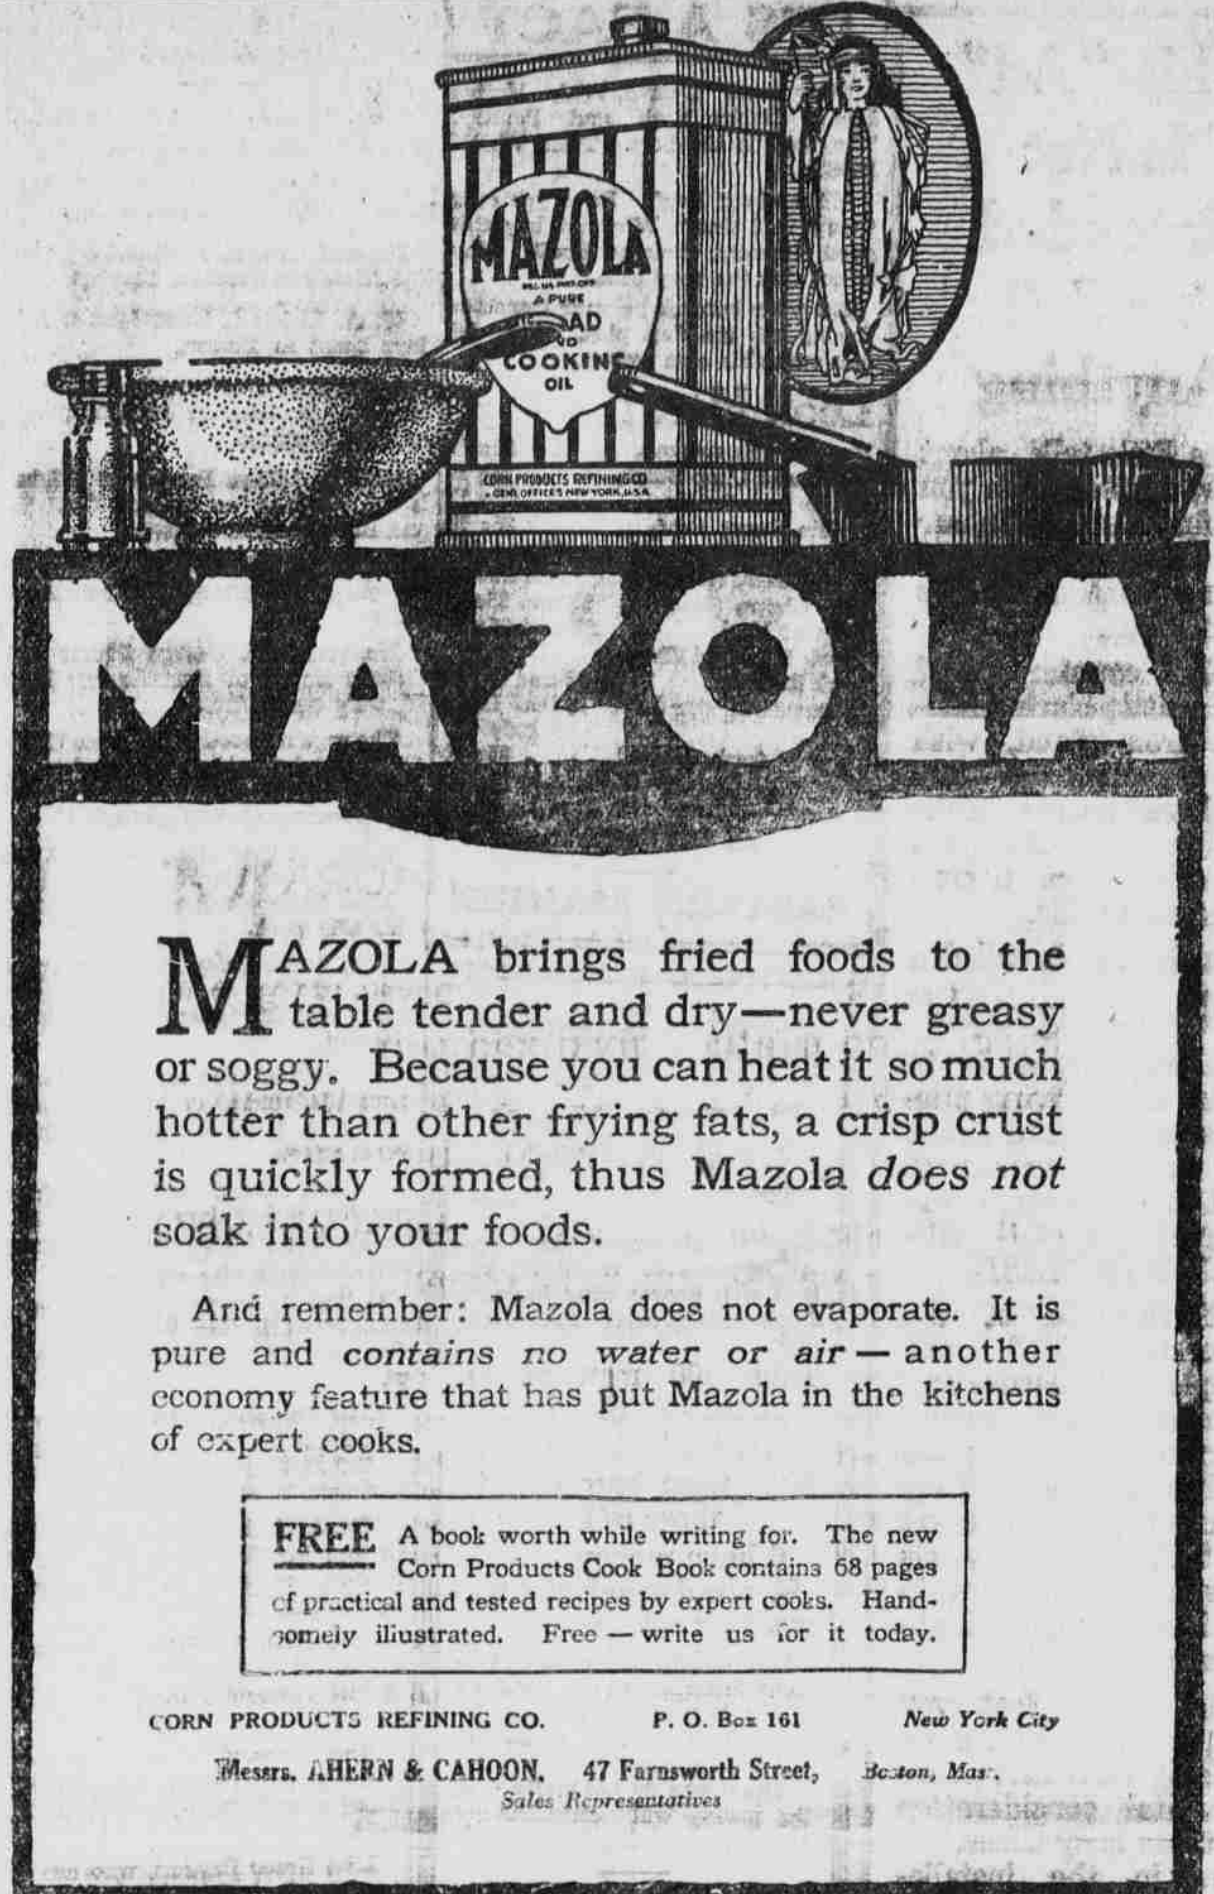

Harold P. Coffin and family of New York have been spending a few days at their summer home on Indian Point street. They will leave today.

W. W. Blodgett and family have returned from Bristol where they spent a few days with Mr. Blodgett's brother, Ray.

Fred Nye went to Burlington last week to take the Federal examination for disability claims. He was injured while serving in the army.

Mrs. Smith of Brattleboro was in town last week to have her teeth tended to by Sam Hamilton.

Mrs. Oliphant went to St. Johnsbury last week by automobile.

MAZOLA

MAZOLA brings fried foods to the table tender and dry—never greasy or soggy. Because you can heat it so much hotter than other frying fats, a crisp crust is quickly formed, thus Mazola does not soak into your foods.

And remember: Mazola does not evaporate. It is pure and contains no water or air—another economy feature that has put Mazola in the kitchens of expert cooks.

FREE A book worth while writing for. The new Corn Products Cook Book contains 68 pages of practical and tested recipes by expert cooks. Handsomely illustrated. Free—write us for it today.

CORN PRODUCTS REFINING CO. P. O. Box 161 New York City

Messrs. AHERN & CAHOON, 47 Farnsworth Street, Boston, Mass. Sales Representatives

NEWPORT Local News

I. Greenfield of St. Albans was a business visitor in town last week. He is a wholesale confectioner.

E. W. Savage, manager of the Boston and Maine freight office has returned from a two weeks' vacation with Mrs. Savage which was spent in a tour of Massachusetts, N. H., Rhode Island and Vermont. Mr. and Mrs. Savage went from Newport to Pittsfield, Mass., and visited the surrounding towns and cities. They motored over the Mohawk trail and drove down the "Hair-pin" turn on the trail and also visited Jacob's Ladder in the Berkshires. Then they went to Boston, thence to Quincy, Mass., and then to Providence, R. I. From Providence they went to Portland, Me., and then came home to Newport through the mountains. They report a most enjoyable trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fontaine of Manchester, N. H., spent Sunday at the home of "Mammy" Clarke on Coventry street.

Only two cases were brought before Judge Wright in Municipal Court Monday and both were settled. Henry Noe, arrested on a warrant issued at the request of his wife, Mrs. Eva Noe for non-support, was placed on probation. It was agreed that he should turn over his salary minus $3 per week for personal expenses to Asa Sleeper, who is to act as trustee and expend the money for the best interests of the family.

William Mason, charged with larceny of $10 and a ring from Mrs. Guy Kinsley of Lowell, Vt., was given from two to six months in the House of Correction. Mason's case was not pressed some months ago on the agreement that he should leave the country and not return. He came back to the states, however, and was immediately arrested and lodged in jail.

A large audience is expected at the free Bible lecture to be given by the International Bible School Association at the Pastime theatre tomorrow evening. Dr. R. L. Robie will speak on "The Distress of Humanity."

The following real estate transfers were received in for record in the City Clerk's Office during the week ending October 25:

A lot and building on Autumn street from Clara V. Somers to Henry E. Somers. Lots 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 on East Main, formerly known as the Causeway, from Perley O. Miller and Nellie M. Grandy to the City of Newport.

Mrs. James Richardson and Miss Berdena Richardson were in Orleans Saturday.

Miss Hazel Gates was a week end guest of Miss Ruby Calkins at Westmore.

Mrs. Henry MacQueen of Boston has been visiting her father, Levi Cota.

Leland Hermon has moved to Mrs.

Victoria Taylor's house on Indian Point street.

Miss Davis, principal of West Ryegate graded school, was a week end guest of Mrs. John Doherty.

Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Wilcox are the proud parents of a seven pound baby daughter, born early Sunday morning, October 26.

Miss Mabel Gay is home from Stanstead college over the week end. Mrs. John Sheldon went to Burlington with friends on Saturday.

Mrs. C. E. Bennett of Derby Line is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Bishop. Mrs. Bennett has so far recovered from the effects of a fall down stairs, that she is able to walk without crutches.

Miss Helen Gogen and Victor Carter, both of this city, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the Main street Baptist parsonage, by Rev. A. V. Allen, pastor of the Main street Baptist church.

EVANSVILLE

C. R. Hillard has been on the sick list the past week.

Rev. and Mrs. I. P. Chase of Franconia, N. H., spent the week end with friends in town.

Homer Martin of Newport spent Sunday at A. E. Tracy's.

Premier Theatre

Newport, Vt.

TUESDAY

Ethel Clayton

—IN—

"Vicky Van"

TO-MORROW

Ethel Ferguson in THE AVALANCHE

Developing, Printing and Enlarging for Amateurs. Special attention paid to mail orders. 24 hour service. All orders forwarded, postage prepaid.

Send for price list.

PHOTO-CRAFT SHOP 37 Main street, Newport Vt. "Everything Photographic" Eastman Kodak Agency

International Bible Students Association

Free Bible Lecture

Pastime Theatre Central Street Newport, Vermont

"The Distress of Humanity"

By Dr. R. L. Robie of Chicago.

8.00 P. M., October 29

You and your friends are invited

Newport Business Directory

S. W. F. HAMILTON

Dentist

CAMPBELL X-RAY SERVICE Office hours 8.30 to 12 and 1.30 to 5 Tel. 45-3 Lane's Block

All Kinds of Insurance Best Stock and Mutual Companies REAL ESTATE

P. C. Blanchard & Co. 67 Main street, Newport, Vt. Tel. 354-3

FRED E. BEAULIEU ELECTRICIAN Dealer in All Kinds of Electrical Goods

13 Coventry Street Newport, Vermont Tel. Con.

MRS. D. R. PUFFER

Teacher of Dancing Modern Dancing for Adults Chaffin and Vestoff Methods of Es-thetic and Interpretive Dancing for Juveniles Tel. 244-4 NEWPORT, VT.

Dr. Harry F. Hamilton DENTAL SURGERY X-Ray Service CAMPBELL HOSPITAL UNIT Office hours: 8.30 to 12, and 1.30 to 5 Tel. 278-2 Gilman's Block

E. H. HOWE Successor to Howe & Stowe REAL ESTATE, NEWPORT Tel. 175 Root's Block

Read the Feature Page